

Come for a thought-provoking symposium – and two days in the Florida sun.

What's ahead for law libraries?

The Future of Law Libraries symposium will consider collection economics, spatial configuration, classroom technology and other topics vital to your work. You'll explore:

- What law libraries will look like in the ever-expanding digital age
- What law library collections will include
- How information will flow to users
- How technology advances will affect all aspects of law librarianship –staffing, facilities, faculty support, and more

Insights from forward-looking experts

GAIL WARREN, State Law Librarian, Virginia State Law Library

JAMES G. MILLES, Associate Dean and Director of the Law Library, Visiting Associate Professor of Law at the University at Buffalo, State University of New York

ELMER MASTERS, Director of Internet Development for CALI

PAUL L. CARON, the Charles Hartsock Professor of Law and Director of Faculty Projects at the University of Cincinnati College of Law

STEVEN BARKAN, Professor & Director of Library and Information Services, University of Wisconsin Law School

PENNY HAZELTON, Associate Dean for Library and Computing Services and Professor of Law at the University of Washington School of Law

MARC A. EICHEN, Director of Academic Technology, Suffolk University Law School

DAN DABNEY, Senior Director of Research and Development at West

STEVE BURNETT, Associate Dean Information Services, Seattle University School of Law

Sponsors of The Future of Law Libraries symposium:

West, a Thomson business, is the leader in the legal publishing industry and a proud supporter of law libraries.

Florida Coastal School of Law aims to distinguish itself as a forward-looking, globally interactive, and culturally diverse institution dedicated to having a positive impact on its students, the community, the legal profession and the justice system. FCSL is fully accredited by the ABA.

The InfiLaw System is a consortium of independent law schools, including Florida Coastal School of Law, Phoenix International School of Law (opening Spring 2005), and Charlotte School of Law (subject to licensure, opening in the fall of 2005). These student-centered institutions strive to serve underserved communities and provide a legal education that graduates practice-ready lawyers.

The Future of Law Libraries

A symposium on the impact of technology on law libraries and law classrooms of the future

March 10-11, 2005
Amelia Island, Florida

The Future of Law Libraries Symposium

March 11-12, 2005

When: Thursday & Friday, March 10-11, 2005

Where: Amelia Island Plantation
Amelia Island, Florida
For reservations call: (888) 261-6165; (Group Reservation ID: 8AI8O8). To receive group room rates of $159 per night plus taxes and fees, reserve by Monday, January 24.

Sponsors: West, a Thomson business

Florida Coastal School of Law

InfiLaw, a parent company of Florida Coastal School of Law and Phoenix International School of Law

Fee: $195 per person
Includes conference attendance, and breakfast and lunch both days.

Transportation and lodging are the responsibility of individual registrants.

To Register: Complete the attached form and send to the address listed at the bottom of the form.

Make checks payable to Florida Coastal School of Law.

For credit card payments, contact Maryellen O'Brien at (904) 680-7637 for processing.

Agenda Day 1 – March 10

8:00-9:00 a.m.	Complimentary Breakfast
9:00-10:15 a.m.	Overview of the AALL Future of Law Libraries in the Digital Age Special Committee's Findings	√Gail Warren
10:15-10:30 a.m.	Break; Refreshments and snacks provided
10:30-11:45 p.m.	Envisioning the Future: The Publishers' Perspective	Dan Dabney
11:45-12:45 p.m.	Complimentary Lunch
12:45-2:00 p.m.	Information Resources: Accessibility in the Future	√Elmer Masters
2:00-2:15 p.m.	Break; Refreshments and snacks provided
2:15-3:30 p.m.	Law Classroom Technologies	Paul L. Caron
3:30-4:45 p.m.	The Need for ABA/AALS Standards to Address Technology Infrastructure	Steve Burnett

Agenda Day 2 – March 11

8:00-9:00 a.m.	Complimentary Breakfast
9:00-10:15 a.m.	ABA Accreditation Considerations	Steven Barkan
10:15-10:30 a.m.	Break; Refreshments and snacks provided
10:30-11:45 p.m.	Collection Economics	James G. Milles
11:45-12:45 p.m.	Complimentary Lunch
12:45-2:00 p.m.	Configuration of the Law Library of the Future	Penny Hazelton
2:00-2:15 p.m.	Break; Refreshments and snacks provided
2:15-3:30 p.m.	Oil & Water? Can IT & Library Staffs Work As One?	Marc A. Eichen

YES, I want to attend!

Please register me for The Future of Law Libraries symposium March 10-11 at Amelia Island Plantation.

Name _____

Title _____

Law School/Organization _____

Mailing Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone (_____) _____

E-mail Address (optional) _____

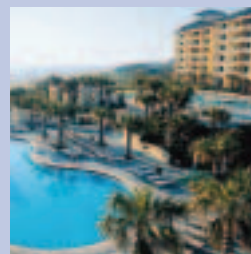

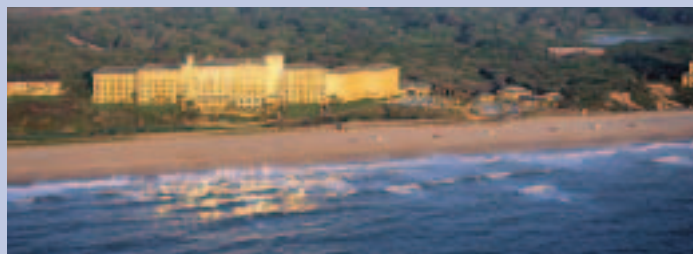

Return this form in the enclosed envelope to
The Future of Law Libraries Symposium
c/o Maryellen O'Brien
Florida Coastal School of Law
Library & Technology Center
7565 Beach Boulevard
Jacksonville, FL 32216

Checks should be made payable to
Florida Coastal School of Law

For credit card payments
contact Maryellen O'Brien at (904) 680-7637
for processing.

Amelia Island Plantation

Amelia Island Plantation is nestled between the Atlantic Ocean and the Intracoastal Waterway and offers oceanfront rooms and villas; championship golf and tennis facilities; a luxury spa; fine shopping, and much more. Conveniently located 29 miles north of Jacksonville International Airport, it is Florida's premier island resort. For details call (800) 874-6878 or visit www.aipfl.com.

Photos courtesy of Amelia Island Plantation.